Zeon earns Bronze rating in EcoVadis sustainability assessment

Zeon Corporation

Zeon Corporation (Zeon; head office: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; President and CEO: Tetsuya Toyoshima) has been awarded a Bronze rating in the sustainability assessment conducted by EcoVadis SAS, an internationally recognized sustainability rating agency based in France.

EcoVadis SAS evaluates the sustainability performance of over 150,000 companies and organizations across 185 countries, based on four criteria: environment, labor and human rights, ethics, and sustainable procurement. Zeon Group was recognized in this assessment for its efforts and awarded the Bronze rating, which is given to the top 35% of evaluated companies and organizations.

In recent years, companies are expected to ensure that their entire value chains are addressing social issues. As part of this, sustainability performance has emerged as a key criterion in business transactions.

Zeon has been promoting sustainability management with the goal of achieving sustainable growth together with society and in line with our corporate philosophy of “Contributing to the preservation of the Earth and the prosperity of the human race.” We will continue to tackle environmental and social challenges while striving to be a company that lives up to societal expectations.
